

Kentucky National Shorthorn

Futurity Show and Sale

BOWLING GREEN, KENTUCKY
SATURDAY, MARCH 14, 1959

Hollis Hanson, Connersville, Indiana, is shown receiving the trophy for reserve champion bull, 1958 Kentucky Futurity from Ben J. Butler, Commissioner of Agriculture. This bull, Barony's Scotsman 135th sold for $1,400 to Kar-Burn Farms, Harrisonville, Missouri. The Lassie Queen is Nancy Meyers, Mahomet, Illinois.

The Kentucky Shorthorn Breeders' Association would like to take this opportunity to thank publicly the Kentucky Department of Agriculture, Ben J. Butler, Commissioner, for the important role it has taken in the development of this sale.

The liberal premiums offered have enabled us to secure cattle that would not be offered for sale under any other circumstances. It has stimulated the production of better Shorthorns within the state, and has helped make Kentucky a focal point for the distribution of superior seed stock.

What Is The

A number of years ago the Kentucky Legislature passed an act setting up a special premium fund for national shows and sales of each of the major beef breeds. These sales, of course had to be held in Kentucky . . . and Ox Valley Critic. Grand champion bull, 1958 Kentucky National Futurity, consigned by Tom Garratt, Scottsburg, Indiana, and sold for $1,475 to Arthur Alexander, Irvington, Kentucky.

Now is the time to sell your mediocre cattle . . . replace them with the quality kind. You'll be amazed at how little the switch to quality will cost . . . how much it will pay you in future returns.

Neoboshon Max. Reserve champion bull, 1956 Kentucky National Futurity. Sold for $700 to George F. Martin Greenville, Kentucky. Consigned by Strother Mitchell Lexington.

How many sales do you attend where there is just an occasional animal you feel would help your herd? If you are hunting a herd sire, you can come to this sale with the assurance that every one of the 27 bulls is the kind worthy of your consideration . . . and backed by powerful bloodlines.

If you are looking for females that can go to the top of your herd, establish new families to work improvement for years to come, you'll find this kind down to the last place animal in each class.

Last year's Kentucky Futurity averaged $448. Is there any reason to own or breed mediocre purebreds when cattle of this calibre and breeding can be secured for so little additional investment? Now is the time to do some trading . . . and improving!

Kentucky National Futurity ?

the appropriation had to be matched by equal premiums from the Association holding the sale.

This was far-sighted legislation aimed, first, at getting buyers from all over the country accustomed to traveling to Kentucky for top registered seed stock . . . the same as they do for horses. Secondly, by holding the sale in Kentucky, it was only natural that a large share of this fine blooded stock would stay in Kentucky to build more quality into Kentucky herds. Also, with these premiums as attractions, Kentucky breeders were stimulated to breed better cattle, consign better cattle, and take an increasingly larger part in the Futurity themselves.

Has this program worked ? Judge for yourself. In the nine years this sale has been held 527 lots of Shorthorns have been sold for a total of $264,680 or an overall average of $502. Cattlemen from 20 states and Canada have purchased.

WHITEHALL BUCKSKIN — A typical Burnton Everlasting bull. Has a great hind end, good head and is rugged. We have used him to obtain Burnton Everlasting granddaughters for replacement females. His dam was purchased by Whitehall in the 1953 Aberfeldy sale for $3,000 and is one of the good cows of the breed. Burnton Everlasting himself sold for $5,000 in the Aberfeldy sale. We are now using Scotsdale Lyttleton, so this bull is not getting sufficient service in the herd now, and we felt that he should go into someone's hands that would be using him heavily.

Scene in the Luther K. Rice herd. Every year the Rice consignment has been one of the largest and strongest. He is selling four bulls and four females in this sale.

His dam, a cow of near ideal type, was one of the top cows in the Carona Dispersal and is now one of our most valuable brood cows.

SUTHERLAND BARD — This bull possesses all of the qualities necessary to make a really top herd bull. He is exceptionally short-legged, deep-bodied and thick with a strong head showing plenty of Shorthorn character and masculinity. He is sired by a son of the $5,000 Cromleybank Ben Lomond, and his dam is one of the great daughters of the Luther Rice sire, Kirkforthar Endeavor. We bought the dam of Sutherland Bard in the 1957 Bowling Green sale where she was a member of the first prize pair and was the second top selling female.

M F Willington. Herd sire for Richard Holt, Versailles, Kentucky. He possesses one of the strongest A. J. Marshall pedigrees in existence. Lots 7 and 15 are sons.

She is in calf to Almahurst Bandmaster, a $3,000 son of Beaufort Bulldozer, since July. Examined and safe in calf.

LAVENDER OF YORK M — A beautiful heifer that has won her class five out of six times throughout the county fairs and was third at the 1958 Tennessee State Fair. We don't like to part with this heifer, but we want our new herd well represented in the Kentucky Futurity. By sale time she will be bred to Pilot Rock, our senior herd sire by Sni-A-Bar Randolph, undefeated in two years of showing. This heifer is a granddaughter of Ringwell Prince Charles that has sired so many winners for the Gavins in Illinois and is out of one of those good Bapton Commando granddaughters from B. H. York in Tennessee. Females of this same breeding have consistently been champions at the Tennessee sales.
